Brian expressed that he was incredibly happy to be able to work for a local construction company that offered full-time employment along with a benefits package.

BRIAN'S STORY

Brian's hands-on approach to life guided his interest in a construction career. He was eager to work and provide for his family when he participated in the Expanded Subsidized Employment (ESE) program in November 2019. Brian's willingness to learn coupled with his experience in solar installation earned him an interview at Champion Homes as a solar installer. Brian expressed that he was incredibly happy to be able to work for a local construction company that offered full-time employment along with a benefits package. Through his diligence and hard work, Brian met both of his goals - gaining employment in construction as well as providing for his family.
