

youth@work

Smart business solutions in tough times

A program of the Workforce Investment Board of Tulare County, youth@work connects Tulare County businesses with youth workforce talent. Our dedicated workforce professionals motivate young people for career readiness and place them into work-related experiences.

youth@work

Contact us today for more information

312 NW 3rd Avenue
Visalia, CA 93291-3626
(559) 732-4194
www.CSET.org/YouthAtWork

connect empower achieve

youth@work No-Cost Services Connecting youth talent with the needs of business

Through mentorship, training and support, our talented team of workforce professionals prepare youth for the world of work. We're your partner in building a pipeline of workforce talent upon which Tulare County businesses can rely.

INITIAL CONSULTATION:

We work with you to identify your immediate needs.

- First step in recruiting and matching candidates
- Identifies the talent that you need

RECRUITMENT:

We make recruitment easy for you.

- We screen for you
- Save time, money and energy

ASSESSMENT:

Making the right match is our job.

- Participants undergo skills and interest assessment
- Work ready support and training

SUPPORTIVE SERVICES:

Think of us as an extension of your HR team.

- Assigned staff for mentorship and support
- Full service program for participants

youth@work No-Cost Services Connecting youth talent with the needs of business Community Services and Employment Training is a selected service provider for youth@work, a program funded by the Workforce Investment Board of Tulare County, and a network of dedicated workforce professionals that empower youth with the tools, resources, motivation and support to navigate successfully into the world of work.

connectempowerachieve

FIND OUT MORE AT:

www.CSET.org/YouthAtWork