"We are excited about meeting new Corpsmembers at this recruitment event," shared Teresa Guzman, SCC Division Director. "The SCC is an essential conservation program in Tulare and Kings Counties providing young people and adults the opportunity to develop job skills and work experience in the green industry. The Corps journey provides opportunities to explore environmental careers, expand personal growth, and make an impact in the community."

For the past 34 years, the SCC has successfully operated in Tulare and Kings Counties, providing more than 4,000 young adults with valuable job training, educational opportunities, leadership, and environmental awareness through community conservation projects. It offers paid training opportunities in weatherization, urban greening, construction, conservation education, and CRV beverage container recycling (i.e., e-waste, used oil, waste tires). Projects entail park development, environment beautification, recycling collection services, weatherization of homes, and natural resource conservation in local community areas. Various positions are available starting at $14.00 an hour.

The SCC is among the California statewide network of state-certified community Conservation Corps addressing critical community needs. Established partners include CalRecycle, Urban Tree Foundation, Caltrans, City of Visalia, City of Porterville, City of Dinuba, and other local municipalities.
